

AM

ANNELLAMETOYER

If You Don't... Who Will?

- ✔ Keynote Speaker
- ✔ Best Selling Author
- ✔ Performance Improvement Coach

"Find your voice and inspire others to find theirs."

- Stephen Covey

Meet Annella Metoyer

Keynote speaker and author Annella Metoyer empowers leaders and emerging leaders to be the change within their organizations. With over 35 years of solving complex problems and building high performing teams in the financial industry, Annella knows firsthand what it will take to lead and succeed in today's complex business world.

annella@annellametoyer.com

 713-703-1145

 www.annellametoyer.com

Annella believes that great leadership relies on the ability to develop others and create a culture of powerful teamwork. She combines her executive experience with extensive interviews, research, and incredible personal stories to bring her powerful message to audiences.

As a speaker, Annella's previous forty-year career in the financial industry gave her a wide range of experience in Sales Leadership, Business Development, Strategic Business Planning, Process Improvement, Customer Service, Client/Public Relations, Revenue Growth/Expense Control, Talent Management, Training and Development, and Performance Management. She was recognized as a collaborative leader skilled at inspiring teams to achieve aggressive goals and objectives. Annella shares her experience from her business and entrepreneurial careers. Her stories empower individuals to reflect on their fear and tap into their power.

Annella's Speaking Presentations

As a speaker, Annella's previous forty-year career in the financial industry gave her a wide range of experience in Sales Leadership, Business Development, Strategic Business Planning, Process Improvement, Customer Service, Client/Public Relations, Revenue Growth/Expense Control, Talent Management, Training and Development, and Performance Management.

She was recognized as a collaborative leader skilled at inspiring teams to achieve aggressive goals and objectives. Annella shares her experience from her business and entrepreneurial careers. Her stories empower individuals to reflect on their fear and tap into their power. When you book one of Annella's keynote presentations, you can count on a highly engaging experience.

www.annellametoyer.com

Dare to Be the Change

"If you don't, who will?" These five simple words formed a strong foundation throughout Annella Metoyer's life and are the cornerstone in all of her keynotes and presentation. As a woman and a person of color, Annella faced adversities in the workplace and beyond. Today, she shares her journey from her first job of stamping addresses on envelopes to become the City President for a large corporate bank. Throughout her presentation, you will be inspired and motivated to "open the door for others." Annella brings her amazing stores of Leadership, Diversity, Change and Triumph to the stage.

Learning Outcome:

- ✔ Gain insight into how to face an adverse situation and make it your advantage.
- ✔ Discover your strengths when faced with a challenge.
- ✔ Explore your power sources.
- ✔ Creating a culture of open communication.
- ✔ Understanding your role as a leader.

Become the Voice in the Room

In "Become the Voice in the Room," Annella Metoyer shares her fresh perspective on work, advancement, and leadership empowering YOU to become the voice in the room. She takes you along on a journey tapping into the experiences and life lessons that she learned on her way to becoming the City President for a large corporate bank in Houston, Texas.

Learning Outcome:

- ✔ Comprehending the concept of "Becoming the Voice in the Room"
- ✔ Discover your strengths
- ✔ Determining your board of directors
- ✔ Learn the steps to forward feed
- ✔ Grow confidence in speaking up

www.annellametoyer.com

Feminine Fear

In her keynote presentation “Feminine Fear,” Annella Metoyer addresses that FEAR is real, and it is fear that keeps us from stepping out and taking risks. Fear limits each of us and sabotages our success. Annella openly shares her experiences and insights on her personal encounters with fear. She encourages women to take the risk and build on their own power source.

Learning Outcome:

- ✔ Understanding the concept of Feminine Fear
- ✔ Examining the causes of fear
- ✔ Gaining insights into your Power Source
- ✔ Recognizing the levels of power
- ✔ Becoming the Power Source for others

TESTIMONIALS

Paul Pettie

Director of Marketing and Public Relations for a Major Hospital System

“If you want your people to be feeling good and making positive changes for weeks and months and years after, then Annella Metoyer is your simple choice.

She truly is someone who motivates your people to stop, think, analyze, and change. She leaves an incredibly uplifting impact on her audiences. Your people will truly thank you for bringing Annella into their lives. If you want a real catalyst for lasting, positive change, Annella is your resource!”

Dr. Kim Nugent

Dr. Nugent Speaks
Innovation Leadership Coach

“If you are looking for an authentic, experiences speaker who connects with audiences, Annella is the speaker for you and your organization. She speaks on real topics that resonate with audiences from the topics of fear to change, and how to be the voice in the room that makes a difference. I always look forward to hearing Annella speak because she has truly walked the path and wants to help others in the process.”

Andrea B. Cadelli

MFA, Storytelling
Consultant and Trainer

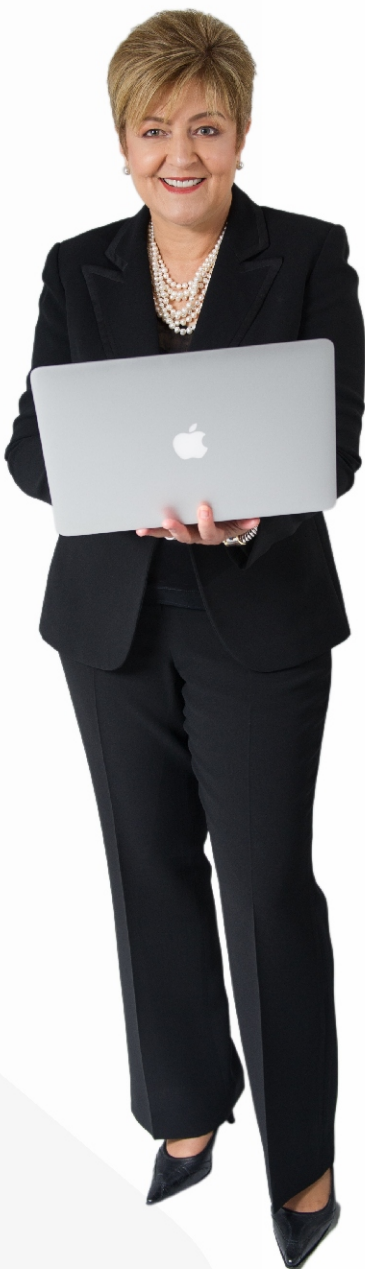

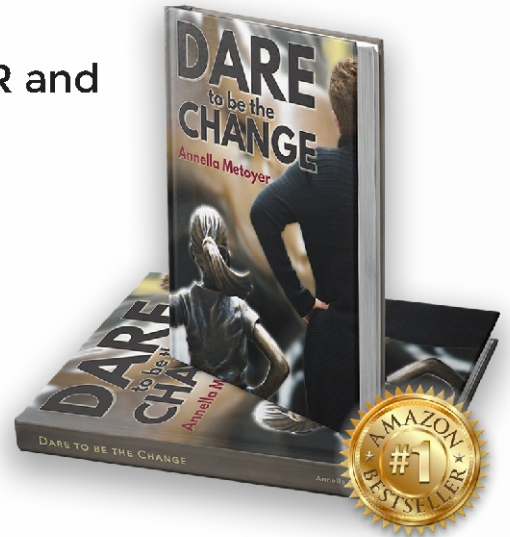

“Annella’s message on overcoming fear and adversity is as powerful as it is empowering. She transforms the energy in the room. The personal stories she shares and the advice on tapping into your power source will help anyone struggling move forward with more courage. I loved Annella’s talk and know that those lucky enough to hear her will find it inspiring too! Bring her on as your next speaker and your audience will thank you.”

Publications

AMAZON #1 NEW RELEASE and #1 BESTSELLER and A 5-STAR REVIEW FROM LITERARY TITANS

In Dare to be the Change, Annella Metoyer courageously shares the details of her life's challenges, her family's dedication to positive change as well as offers hope for readers through her struggles and accomplishments.

Starting with the integration of her small-town public school, she encounters a life-changing experience that sets her on a path of "being the change." Not only did she face the challenges when women were not the voice in the room, but she also did so as a person of color. From coworkers to disgruntled customers' discrimination, she lived the evolution of attitudes. With each adversity, she became more determined to take the challenge and turn it into an advantage.

Fun Facts about Annella:

- ✓ Traveled to Cuba, China, and Italy
- ✓ Love personality assessments; One Christmas I gave the assessment to all of my family members
- ✓ Love to bake; especially Pies and teaching my grandnieces how to bake
- ✓ I still click my fingers when I dance
- ✓ Love working in my herb garden

AM
ANNELLAMETOYER

If You Don't... Who Will?

annella@annellametoyer.com

 713-703-1145

 www.annellametoyer.com

